

Backyard Bliss Starts Here

Make Outdoor Time Enriching & Fear Free for Your Dog

There's nothing better than summertime with your pup—but your backyard can be more than just a potty stop. With a few small changes, it can become a joyful, enriching space that supports your dog's emotional and physical wellbeing.

Easy Backyard Enrichment Ideas

Sniff & Stroll

Let your dog take the lead and follow their nose—it's like mindfulness for pups!

Dog-Friendly Yard

Ensure your dog can enjoy every inch of your outdoor space by keeping it clean and weed-free with a weed & grass killer like Spruce which is made with only nine simple ingredients, making it safe for use around people and pets when used as directed.

Splash Zones

Set up a shallow kiddie pool or sprinkler for hot-weather fun.

Obstacle Fun

Use boxes, cones, or cushions to create a low-pressure agility course.

Sun & Shade Lounging

Offer soft blankets, cooling mats, or shady spots for outdoor relaxation.

A Fear Free Approach to Outdoor Play

Keep outdoor time fun and Fear Free with these tips:

- Let your dog explore at their own pace
